

SUMMER READING 2014

GRADE 7 ASSIGNMENT

TASK: As you read your required summer reading book, take notice of the author's words and ideas. If something strikes you (a phrase, sentence, paragraph, or even a word) for any reason, mark it with a sticky note or use highlight tool on an E-reader. Write the passage and the page number on the sticky note. You should have a minimum of 4 marked sections per book. Note the page number on each sticky and place your sticky note in the correct boxes.

CHOOSE Passages THAT....

- 1) Makes you stop, think, and say whoa!
- 2) Makes you angry, happy, sad, proud, etc.
- 3) Makes you stop and question your own personal feelings and opinions
- 4) Reminds you of something in your own life, a memorable moment (good or bad)

See below for a sample passage:

Put your sticky notes in this column	Write your explanations in this column
Sticky note 1: “Well, I was a butthead, because like I said, I never had a brain until Freak moved down the street.” (p4)	Write down in this box why you chose this passage or quote: It made me think, how can someone named “Freak” give someone a brain?
